ABOUT ME

I'm a passionate sophomore Computer Science student on a mission to transform my technical expertise into tangible results. I'm committed to honing my skills and strategies to secure exciting opportunities in the tech industry.

Throughout my academic journey, I've embraced a rigorous curriculum that spans algorithms, data structures, OOPs, software engineering, and more. I thrive on the challenge of converting complex problems into elegant solutions, and I'm eager to apply these skills to real-world scenarios.

PROJECTS

CAFE MANAGEMENT SYSTEM:

Developed a fully functional CAFE BILLING INTERFACE using python and tkinter, where we have to just give inputs for the number of items we have ordered and rest it will show the Results including gst and other service charges.

TENSTHROW TRANSLATOR

Language Translator GUI with Python and Tkinter This project demonstrates a Language Translator Graphical User Interface (GUI) created using Python's Tkinter library and the Google Translate API. The GUI allows users to easily translate text from one language to another using a user-friendly interface.

TRAVEL PLANNER

Designed and developed a user-friendly travel planner website, streamlining the trip planning process for thousands of users. Implemented comprehensive destination guides and interactive tools, providing travelers with customized itineraries and up-to-date information. Fostered partnerships with airlines, hotels, and tour operators to offer exclusive deals and discounts, enhancing the overall value for website users.
